RGLA Welcomes Keith Larson as Senior Architect

Management Addition: RGLA Solutions, Inc. (Chicago, IL) has appointed Keith Larson to the position of Senior Architect. As a Senior Architect at RGLA, Keith will be responsible for a breadth of architectural services, ranging from design development to Project Management.

Keith joins RGLA after a career in private architectural practice spanning 25 years, the last 15 as partner in the firm of Larson-Kramer and Associates. During his tenure, Larson Kramer specialized in the Golf and Recreation field, developing Clubhouse Design and Recreation Buildings for both the private sector and Public Park Districts. Notable projects included the Biltmore Country Club in Barrington, IL and The Long Beach Senior Citizen and Recreation Center in Long Beach, MS.

Keith is a graduate of The University of Illinois with degrees in Architecture and Urban and Regional Planning, and contributes his expertise and many years of experience to the RGLA process. As one of the nation's leading retail design firms, RGLA (with offices in Chicago & Los Angeles) provides design and roll-out services for premier retail, financial and food service brands in the US and Internationally.
